

Municipal Employees Chapter's Spring Educational Seminar Friday, March 13, 2009

Harriett Laurence—Communication Skills in Today's Environment

Harriett entertained and educated attendees during the Friday afternoon seminar at the 2008 Georgia Division Annual Meeting. Now is your chance to experience her brand of wit and humor for the first time, or again, as she helps us polish our communication skills for navigating through today's environment. What a timely and relevant topic for today's environment.

Captain Greg Schaffer—Increasing Interpersonal Effectiveness: Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI)

The fun and education continues as we bring you Greg Schaffer, a training consultant and nationally known speaker, who will help us learn about our personality type and how to work with all those different personalities around us. Greg works for Gwinnett County Fire & Emergency Services, Fire Academy. Greg is a Franklin Covey Certified Facilitator and Myers-Briggs Type Indicator Practitioner. He is in high demand as a speaker due to his presentation style and enthusiasm for this topic.

6 Recertification Points have been awarded.
